Davao mayor endorses Alvarez

By Cynthia D. Balana

AS THE CAMPAIGN for the May 10 elections entered the home stretch, independent senatorial candidate Robinson Alvarez received an outpouring of support from influential people and groups from the south despite his lack of political machinery and funds.

On Friday evening, Alvarez was endorsed by Davao City Mayor Rodrigo Duterte in a big rally by the homegrown Huggang sa Tausig Lungsod.

On Saturday, the ruling community in Compostela Valley Province consolidated its support for Alvarez's bid to return to the Senate.

Yesterday, Alvarez was informed by the national minorities sector in the region that its members would campaign for his election.

They said that as environment secretary, Alvarez pushed for the grant of ancestral domains to native tribes.

Duterte, who presented Alvarez in a rally in the crowded Bantukanan area, acknowledged the key role of the former environment secretary in ending the 30-year-old conflict in the gold-rich site in Mt. Diwata, Marikina, Compostela Valley Province.

He said the income-sharing scheme introduced by Alvarez increased the income of small miners and brought in revenues to the government.

Alvarez also worked with Duterte, who helped in his capacity as regional peace and order chief.

The Daily Gospel

Matthew 10:1-15

1. Jesus called his twelve apostles and gave them authority over all demons and to cure diseases, and he sent them out two by two. He gave them these signs: In the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, they were to cast out demons and cure diseases in all the towns and villages. But do not take gold, silver, or copper for a journey, nor a staff, nor sandals, nor a cloak, nor food, nor drink, nor anything of the kind. For the Son of Man will provide for you. When you enter a town or village, ask the people for hospitality. If they refuse to receive you, shake the dust off your feet when you leave the town, and say, 'Your house is cursed because you have refused to receive me or my message.'

2. So they went out and preached everywhere, and people everywhere began to obey them. But in Capernaum they did not obey them, so Jesus said, 'I will not go back there anymore, for I have found no one there who obeys me. I will go to other towns and villages, for I have found no one there who obeys me.'

Namfrel poll results out in a week

Manila, Philippines (AP) — The Namfrel poll results are expected to be out in a week, according to a source familiar with the process. The source said that the results of the poll, which was conducted by the National Commission on the Role of Filipino Women (NCRFW), will be released to the public in a week. The poll was conducted to determine the role of Filipino women in the country's development. The results of the poll will be used to guide the government's policies on women's issues.

Peso soars on widening GMA poll lead

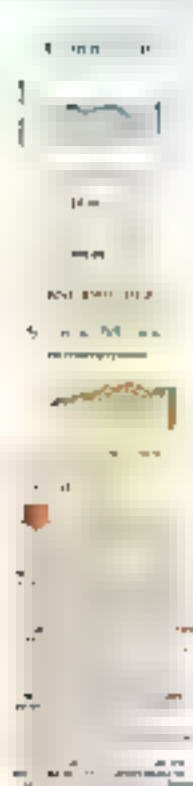

By Peter J. Martin

MANILA, Philippines — The Philippine peso soared today on news that the GMA network's poll lead in the May 14 presidential election had widened to 10 percentage points, from 7 points last week.

Inflation rose to 4.3% in April

By Peter J. Martin

MANILA, Philippines — Inflation rose to 4.3% in April, the highest level in 18 months, as prices of food and services continued to climb. The Philippine Statistics Authority (PSA) reported today that the consumer price index (CPI) for April rose 4.3% from a year earlier, up from 3.8% in March. The PSA said the increase was driven by a 5.1% rise in food prices and a 4.1% rise in services prices. The overall CPI for April was 103.8, up from 103.4 in March. The PSA said the increase in food prices was due to a rise in the prices of rice, corn, and other staples. The increase in services prices was due to a rise in the prices of transportation, health, and recreation. The PSA said the increase in inflation was a concern for the government, as it could lead to higher interest rates and a weaker peso. The government has been working to control inflation by increasing the supply of food and services and by keeping interest rates low.

1. The first step is to identify the main components of the system. This includes the hardware (CPU, memory, storage) and software (operating system, applications).

2. The second step is to determine the requirements for each component. This includes the performance, reliability, and security requirements.

3. The third step is to select the appropriate components based on the requirements. This involves comparing different products and services to find the best fit.

4. The fourth step is to install and configure the components. This includes setting up the hardware, installing the software, and configuring the system parameters.

5. The fifth step is to test the system to ensure it meets the requirements. This involves running various tests to check the performance, reliability, and security of the system.

6. The sixth step is to document the system configuration and test results. This includes creating a configuration manual and a test report.

7. The seventh step is to maintain the system over time. This includes monitoring the system performance, updating the software, and replacing hardware components as needed.

Easy-to-prepare breakfast for Mom

By Shonda H. Parsons

One of the most important things a mom can do for her family is to make sure they have a healthy breakfast. A healthy breakfast can help a mom feel energized and ready to take on the day.

How to make a healthy breakfast

There are many ways to make a healthy breakfast. One way is to make a smoothie. A smoothie is a drink made from fruit, yogurt, and other ingredients. Another way is to make a yogurt parfait. A yogurt parfait is a dish made from yogurt, fruit, and granola. A third way is to make a fruit and yogurt smoothie. A fruit and yogurt smoothie is a drink made from fruit, yogurt, and other ingredients.

Benefits of a healthy breakfast

A healthy breakfast can help a mom feel energized and ready to take on the day. It can also help a mom lose weight and improve her overall health.

Managing restos, canteens

Managing restos and canteens can be a challenge for many businesses. It is important to have a system in place to manage these areas effectively. This system should include a clear policy on how to handle restos and canteens, as well as a way to track and measure the results of the system.

Cable subscribers are fit to be tied

OFFERS of more on-demand content are being made by cable companies, but they don't seem to be making much headway. The reason may be that the companies are not offering enough content to make the switch to a subscription model. The reason may be that the companies are not offering enough content to make the switch to a subscription model.

The Consumer

By [Name] [Last Name]

When it comes to cable TV, the options are endless. But for many subscribers, the choice is between a basic package and a premium package. The basic package typically includes a few channels, while the premium package includes a much larger selection of channels. However, the premium package is often more expensive, and the basic package is often more limited. This makes it difficult for subscribers to choose between the two options.

One of the main reasons why subscribers are not switching to a subscription model is that the cable companies are not offering enough content to make the switch worth it. The cable companies are often offering a large number of channels, but many of these channels are not of high quality. This makes it difficult for subscribers to see the value in switching to a subscription model. Additionally, the cable companies are often offering a large number of channels, but many of these channels are not of high quality.
